DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

—FRIDAY, NOV. 3, 1899—

They are still piling up affidavits that Gov. Brown endorsed the Goebel law at Shepherdsville last year, although he denies it now.

Owensboro seems to be a peculiarly unfortunate city this week. It has had Hal Corbett and is to be afflicted with Theodore Hallam tonight.

The four states classed as doubtful are Ohio, Kentucky, Nebraska and Maryland. The Democrats are confidently expecting to carry three out of the four.

Goebel spoke to 2,000 people at Lebanon Tuesday and Marion county is in such line-shape that the Democrats probably increased majority.

Gov. Bradley is determined to put a Republican police judge into office at Owensboro. He has decided that Judge Roberts' insanity vacates the office and has appointed Lawson Reno to the place.

Taylor spent two or three days this week traversing the mountain counties in a special train making speeches along the route. Rain seriously interfered with the success of the meeting at many places.

Sharkey and Jeffries will fight a 25-rounds contest for the World's championship at Coney Island tonight. George Siler, of Chicago, will be referee. The purse is $30,000 and a share of the gate receipts. There are 15,000 seats and they are selling at from $5 to $35 each.

England now has 29,000 soldiers enroute to the South African war. The first installment of 6,000 will reach Cape town Sunday and 23,000 more will arrive during the week following. What the Boers do must needs be done quickly. The British army will eventually reach about 90,000 men.

Admiral Dewey has owned up that he is going to marry the widow Hazen, Jno R. McLean's sister. She is fair and forty, childless and immensely rich. As the wife of the highest ranking officer of the navy, she will be expected to set the styles for Washington and entertain in a most lavish and elaborate manner. The date has not been announced.

We hear no more of the claim that any man on the Mixed Ticket is a Democrat. The Republicans are using these so-called Democrats to do a good deal of their night work. The negro vote in the close wards is under the special care of these "purificationists." They are meeting the negroes at night and drilling them for election day, knowing that they will all vote for Taylor. Any man who knows anything at all, knows that the Democratic party has no worse enemies than the leaders in this so-called Citizens Ticket.

Even the Post is forced to confess that there will be a fair election in Louisville. It says of the orders issued by the Chief of Police:

"We congratulate the people of Louisville on these orders. They insure a fair election. They dissipate all idea of a disturbance."

With a fair election last year Louisville went Democratic. It will do the same this year. The orders issued a week ahead were at Senator Goebel's request. They give the lie to the slanders that have been so industriously circulated, that frauds were contemplated.

Judge H. C. Eversole has been ousted from the office of circuit judge of the 27th district. Judge W. L. Brown was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge A. H. Clark. Eversole defeated him for the nomination and an election was held last year and Brown was elected. It has since been decided in another case that a state or district officer cannot be elected at a congressional election. Brown then raised the point that he was still judge and the question was submitted by agreement to Judge Parker, who decided that Eversole's election was illegal and Brown is entitled to resume the office. An election could have been held this year, but it is now too late and Judge Brown will serve for two years before an election can be held. He will go to Clay county to hold court next week. Both judges are Republicans.

Count D'Almeida declared to Madrid Tuesday that owing to the ignorance of the Spanish-American Peace Treaty Commissioners three Philippine Islands were left out of the treaty. He wants them used to secure the liberation of the Spanish prisoners.

Gov. Bradley issued a proclamation Tuesday formally opening the School of Reform at Lexington and 10 youthful convicts from the penitentiary were taken there. There will be room for more by Dec. 1.

Vice President Hobart can never get well. He has heart trouble and may die at any moment or may live on indefinitely with one foot in the grave.

Capt. David R. Beard died at his home in this city at 10 o'clock Wednesday night. He was in his usual health, ate a hearty supper and was soon after taken with a rigor and died in twenty minutes.

Capt. Beard was born Oct. 14, 1814, in Harrisonburg, Rockingham county, Va., and came to this county with his parents in 1820 and settled in the northeast part of the county.

When 17 years old David R. Beard came to Hopkinsville and adopted the trade of a saddler. He went into business for himself in 1847 and remained in business until 1880, when he retired with a large fortune. Since that time he had looked after his large property interests, but during the last few years much of his business has been in the hands of his nephew Mr. R. H. Holland.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows and the Methodist church and was one of the most devout and consistent Christians who ever lived in Hopkinsville. He was for many years a member of the city council and was always foremost in every progressive move.

In 1858 he was married to Mrs. Malinda Holland Beard, his brother's widow, who died several years ago. They leave but one child, Miss Johnnie Beard.

The funeral services will be held at the residence at 10 o'clock today, Rev. W. K. Piner officiating.

The honorary pall-bearers will be Geo. W. Graves, W. T. Boice, E. L. Foulks, R. G. Quarles, Ira F. Ellis, H. C. Gant, J. P. Braden, and R. M. Anderson. The interment took place at Hopewell cemetery.

The Coming Show.

A Rensselaer, Ind., exchange says:

"The much heralded Porter J. White Co. produced 'Faust' at Ellis' opera house last evening to standing room only. Goethe's masterpiece is one in which those of dramatic ability and the wizards of that subtle force, electricity, are offered the opportunity for the highest display of their art, and the Porter J. White company, possessing the necessary requisites, produced Faust in a manner highly pleasing to the large audience which greeted them. This is undoubtedly the finest version of this play ever seen in a city of this size."

GUNS HAVE COME.

Capt. C. H. Tandy yesterday received the guns and uniforms for Co. D from Frankfort. They came with $9.25 charges attached. It was finally decided to take the goods out and draw upon the Adjutant General for the freight charges, which should have been prepaid, as the company has no funds.
